February 2023

President's Message

We painted some beautiful Spring bouquets in January, and I hope those who painted with Tami are enjoying their beautiful bouquets. She is busy designing some new items and we hope to have her back soon. If you would like to learn how to paint on glass, she is a great teacher to learn from.

We had 10 students sign-up two on zoom and 8 in the classroom. Onya put some great items together for raffles, and we made $45.00 to offset our rent and insurance. Not much, but every little bit helps.

Join us on February 18th when Janet Mitchell will teach us Rosemary West's "Wise Old Owl" Prepped surfaces are available for $8.00 paid to Janet Mitchell. Janet will be teaching us dry brushing techniques and she has lots of great ideas.

March is "Hello Fall" by Erika Joanne and taught by Fran Wilson. This is a multimedia piece, using pencils and acrylics. Decorated with a few buttons and some twine for interest. There is a pattern fee of $5.85 made out to Fran Wilson. Be sure to look at the programs page for cost and details.

On January 11th I sent out the teacher invites. If you have a teacher in mind or a technique you are interested in learning, let me know. We would like to bring you a great lineup of projects for the rest of 2023 and into 2024.

We have a Zoom-only Seminar lined up for April 15th with Maureen J. Baker. She will be teaching us how to paint a lovely pink rose in a glass vase. Please see page 4 in this newsletter for the details and sign up soon.

Our board met on January 17th to discuss the budget for 2023, see page 7-8. Although we are no longer part of SDP, we will continue to audit our books yearly. It's a good business practice and will remain in place. We have two members from our general membership who will perform this duty.

This brings us to the Standing Rules and By-Laws which need to be reviewed and adjusted to reflect we are a painting group and no longer a chapter. We need 2-3 people for this work. Let me know if you can help.

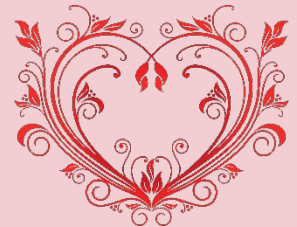

A big surprise, Katy Taylor volunteered to host the Mystery Paint-in!! I am so excited, and I hope you are too. She has done a great job the past few years. I can't wait to see what she has in store for us.

We need a nominating committee. If you are interested in being on this committee or any of the board positions, please let me know.

Happy Painting!
Linda Martin

HAPPY
TOGETHER
JULY 14 - AUG 13, 2023

OC FAIR
July 14 - Aug 13, 2023

The OC Fair has announced that "Happy Together" will be the theme of the 2023 event that will run July 14-Aug. 13, highlighting community inclusion.

We currently don't have a date for submissions but last year they opened in February and ran until May.

It's a good time to look over your stash of finished and UFO's and decide which items to enter the OC Fair.

I am proposing a contest this year for the person who enters the most items in the fair. If you win the drawing, you receive a coupon for a free paint-in.

Remember by entering the OC Fair you will receive a free ticket to enter the fair any day of your choosing unlike buying a ticket in advance and having to schedule your visit.

So, get those brushes moving and let's fill the Hobby & Crafts building with Tole and Decorative painted items.

Please check the newsletter for updates.
