June 2023

President's Message

Hello fellow painters,
 June is a time for graduations and the beginning of Summer with vacations, outdoor celebrations and Father's Day on June 18th. As I am writing this it's all gloomy and has been for several days. This may be one of those summers where it stays overcast most of the day. I call it June gloom. Good weather for gardening and painting. We had a wonderful paint-in with Liz Vigliotto on May 20th. Although there were only five of us, 4 in person and one zooming. It was a great class. Now we know we can host a teacher via Zoom and still enjoy each other's company.

Liz drew two names for patterns on her website. Fran Wilson won one and Lorna Parong won the other. Congratulations Ladies. Next month we will be painting with Fran Wilson, teaching Sharon Cooks, Fresh and Funky Flowers. This pattern can be done on wood as well as fabric. Fran painted hers on a tote. I can envision a garden sign or an apron. Lots of ideas. I hope you join us to paint this cute project.

Please check out our other upcoming programs and support the painting group.

Just a reminder that we still do not have a Holiday Party committee. If someone can grab a friend and volunteer for this it would be great.

Pick a theme and go with it.

Happy Painting!

Linda Martin
