Volume 25 Issue 09

September 2023

President's Message

Well, I hope everyone made it through Hurricane Hilary safe and sound. I know some people were more affected than others. Is it just me or was the hype a lot bigger than the storm itself? Anyway, I hope everyone is safe and sound.

Some of you went to Oklahoma to the Palooza! We are interested in hearing from you and seeing what you painted. What teachers were your favorite etc. If you are painting with us in September, please share your experience by bringing some of your pieces.

We had a great Saturday paint-in with Onya teaching her version of Zhostovo style on a heart box. We had to make minor adjustments and set-up class in the kitchen because the water district booked the conference room. But it all worked out.

There were some beautiful pieces and I think it all went well.

September is a beautiful fall piece designed by Tracy Moreau and taught by Fran Wilson. You can pick up an acorn surface at the Dollar Tree, Fran suggests buying two and gluing them together for more stability. See the upcoming programs for more information.

I want to mention the Mystery Paint-in here too. I know Katy has an article in the newsletter, but I wanted to mention that these ladies have put a lot of work into bringing you a great project. Something different and something fun. So be sure to sign up for this in-person event which includes lunch. See Katy's article for price etc.

We will have a General Meeting at the MPI to discuss general business and ask for volunteers to help with the next MPI and with Programs etc.

I hope you will join us.

Happy Painting,

Linda Martin

School Supplies

Charity

Backpacks and school supplies that you donated to South County Outreach were delivered in early August and are appreciated. There were only 6 participating members. I know it's harder to contribute since we do not meet in person as often but I will take checks and I'm glad to do the shopping for you 😊
