December 2023

President's Message

I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving! I know I had to break out the stretchy pants and they will stay out until after the holidays.

We had our last paint-in for 2023 on November 18th with Onya Tolmasoff. We painted Lisbeth Stull's Santa on an Oyster Shell. Onya brought lots of shells for us to paint on and several of the ladies painted two or three, it was a really fun day.

Speaking of fun, I hope you all join us for our luau-themed Holiday Day Party on December 10th. Lorean Weng has a fun day planned for us, so be sure to sign up. I want to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays as we move into December and the last month of the year.

It has been a wonderful journey and I have personally enjoyed being your president and programs chair these past two years. You are a great group of painting friends.

This past week of November I sent out an "Emergency General Meeting notice" and at the time of writing this newsletter, I have no idea what the outcome will be. It will be up to you all whether we should continue as a painting group or disband. We desperately need volunteers to help with programs, whether it be contacting potential teachers or preparing the yearly calendar. We need help with fundraising, we have tons of surfaces and books and these items need to be put together for raffles, etc.

Also, if you know your way around "Word" you can help us create nifty flyers to post on Facebook to promote our upcoming programs.

We have three classes left of this last season January, February, and March. If we continue, I will need to send out teacher invitations and begin the selection process. I will keep you posted. If anyone is willing to help me with creating a teacher list and updating our contracts, it would be greatly appreciated.

Wishing you all a wonderful December.

Happy Painting,

Linda Martin

Addendum to the President's Letter

We had our Emergency General Meeting on the evening of November 29th at 6:15 pm. Out of the 25 members that we invited and gently reminded only 14 joined the ZOOM meeting. I did have two people reach out to me, who would be traveling and give their input.

After much discussion and voting the group decided to dissolve the painting group. It breaks my heart and I know it does others as well.

The last three scheduled paint-ins will be ZOOM Only. Please consider joining us for these classes.

We have a wonderful Holiday Party and all the raffle items will be free. Onya has a plan in place to make it go smoothly.

We will not have a membership drive and any monies that have been received for membership will be refunded to you.

The board will plan a fun and all-expenses-paid event for the 25 people who are current 2023 members. This will take place sometime in March – April 2024 time when our club comes to an official end.

We will offer the folding tables, paper goods, and other assets to the current 25 members. If you are interested in seeing or obtaining any of these items, please contact me.

It has been my pleasure to be your president these past two years.

Linda

OKC PAINTING PALOOZA

Looks like the OKC Painting Palooza is coming along. They announced that you can pre-order your 2024 catalog today, they are $8.00 and they will be shipped after the 1st of the year in January. They plan to open registration in February.

The 2024 OKC Painting Palooza dates are August 10-17 which falls on our paint-in weekend. We may need to move our paint-in date to another weekend.

To visit their website go to www.okcpaintingpalooza.com

They also have a list of over 60 teachers, I can't wait to see the projects they will be teaching.

Happy Painting
